GREAT LOSS DUE TO LAKE TIUP

Disaster in Wake of Big Commercial Blockade.

EAST WORST OFFERER.

Buffalo, May 21.—Through the blockade of traffic on the Great Lakes, Buffalo suffers a tremendous loss. The East is more especially the loser. It is said by shippers here, will be more disastrously affected by the tiup than resulted from the great anthracite coal strike.

STRIKE OF MASTERS AND PILOTS HAS COMPLETELY PARALYZED LAKE TRAFFIC.

Shippers are counting on the continuation of the blockade during the summer. The great water highway of trade between the West and the East is practically closed. The smoke of a lumber craft or a tramp steamer is occasionally seen but that is all. In the granaries of the West, millions of bushels of cereals are stored but should have been delivered in the East long ago. The Lake Superior mines are turning out iron ore that the furnaces of the East will need by and by, but won't be able to get while hundreds of thousands of tons of coal are held up either at the mines or at the Lake Superior docks.
